LFR -

Words are hard to find which can express the true gratitude I have for you. Your help with the Morris Bus incident on Aug 24th was a true example of how agencies can work together perservere, face our own fears and provide care with compassion for those in need. We can do anything we set our mind to, thank you for your leadership and continued dedication.

Sincerely,
Karla Houfek