Dana Roper, City Attorney, stated that the rear light is one that is visible for at least 500 feet on a clear night & it's attached either to the bicycle or the bike rider. This is not a blinking light, this is a beam of light.

Chief Casady answered that he doesn't know, that this ordinance is one that was recommended by the committee.

Craig Groat, 4935 Huntington Avenue, stated that the lights on the bike trails is also a concern. Joel Pedersen, Ass't. City Attorney, stated that the Interlocal Agreement has already been signed by the County which provides for $75,000.00 in funding and no more. He also explained the skywalk maintenance agreement provides the methodology & mechanism for those costs to be borne by the adjacent property owners & those are maintained. There's a Board set up so that the cost of maintenance and Bill Olson, 1225 L Street, Attorney representing J.R. Leasing Company came forward in opposition to the lease agreement. He objected to Gold's Galleria not being given the opportunity to bid on the lease to house the Aging Department. He stated they could save the City about 25% & would have plenty of space. He asked that this be made an open & fair bidding process. Discussion followed.

Jim Haga, 8212 Stockwell Street, expressed concern with giving projects to those who are contributors to the Mayor. He feels that the Council's vote for this lease would be hypocritical to their campaign promises. He would like them to vote to have a fair bidding process which could give the City a better price. Discussion followed.

Richard Halvorsen, 6311 Inverness Road, came forward to ask that they vote against this lease and put it up for public bid.

Terry Werner, Council Member, asked Marc Wullschleger if they had looked into purchasing the building.
