LINCOLN'S NEW ARENA TO BE NAMED FOR PINNACLE BANK

Lincoln's new arena in the West Haymarket area will be named Pinnacle Bank Arena. Mayor Chris Beutler, Pinnacle Bancorp Chairman Sid Dinsdale and Pinnacle Bank President Mark Hesser announced the naming rights agreement at a news conference this morning at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. A scale model of the arena with the new name also was unveiled, and it will be on display at the Chamber office, 1135 "M" Street, through December.

With approval of the agreement by the West Haymarket Joint Public Agency (JPA), Pinnacle Bank will pay a base fee of $11.25 million to be the exclusive title sponsor of the arena for a term of 25 years. In addition to the base fee, Pinnacle Bank will pay $20,000 for each year the arena serves as a site for one or more state high school tournaments in volleyball, basketball or wrestling.

"Pinnacle is a top-notch Nebraska company, and we are excited that the Pinnacle name will now be associated with Lincoln's new top-of-the-line arena," said Mayor Beutler, who also serves as chair of the JPA. "Residents of Lincoln and Nebraska can take pride in this agreement, which demonstrates the commitment of all parties to excellence. This long-term partnership is a positive reflection of Pinnacle Bank, the new arena and the future of our community."

"Pinnacle Bank has been serving Nebraska and Lincoln for many years, and we are excited to support progress that will have a positive impact on our state and local economy," said Dinsdale. "We are proud to be part of the arena, which will help bring jobs and entertainment to Lincoln and the state for years to come."

The $179 million arena project was approved by voters in May 2010. Pinnacle Bank Arena is expected to open in the fall of 2013. UNL basketball will be the main tenant of the 470,400-square-foot facility, which can hold nearly 15,000 fans for Husker hoops.

As the exclusive sponsor of the arena and arena site, the new arena website will be named PinnacleBankArena.com. (The current website – HaymarketNow.com – also will be in effect until the end of construction.)

- more -

The agreement also calls for Pinnacle Bank to receive:

- three exterior signs;
- the Pinnacle Bank Arena logo on the center-hung scoreboard, public exterior doors and adjacent light pole banners;
- signs on the main and upper concourses;
- use of a center court suite and use of the arena for two days per year; and
- three locations for ATM machines in the arena.

"Since the inception of the West Haymarket Joint Public Agency, we have worked very hard to promote the entire West Haymarket project as a public-private partnership," said JPA member and NU Regent Tim Clare. "We are excited about our new partner, Pinnacle Bank, joining our team and partnering with us, as Pinnacle Bank is an outstanding, statewide organization that has benefitted Lincoln and the entire state of Nebraska. We are looking forward to working with them in the years to come."

"This will be visible proof of Pinnacle Bank's commitment to Lincoln. However, their commitment to the community has roots much deeper than this particular event," said Wendy Birdsall, Chamber of Commerce President. "It should be noted that Pinnacle has been investing in our community for many years and has been a strong partner for growth and prosperity for decades. We are excited that this will help solidify that legacy as a major partner in Lincoln's future."

Pinnacle Bank's title sponsorship will be the largest partnership for the arena. Other naming rights opportunities inside the arena are available for areas such as the box office, premium level and club lounge. The agreement between the West Haymarket JPA and Pinnacle Bank was reached through a collaborative effort among the City of Lincoln, Pinnacle Bank and Legends Sales & Marketing. Ben Wrigley, Vice President of Project Development with Legends, brokered the deal.

Union Plaza Sculpture Project

Title: "Discover"

Materials/Finish:

- Stainless steel (type/series 304) 3/16" thick
- Matte finish will be utilized to eliminate a reflective surface. The sculptural work needs to blend into the existing landscape and not detract from established focal points. This will be a "discovery" piece in that when viewed from a specific vantage point the viewer may see or discover the state capital building though the rectangular cut-out.
- The sculpture will incorporate an interior skeleton structure for additional support.
- Concrete base at approximately ground level designed to carry maximum load anticipated.
- Access to grass mowing care will be considered as necessary.

Size/Dimensions:

10' tall x 5' wide
Width at top is approximately 3.5'
Width at bottom is approximately 1'

Sculptural Concept:

As mentioned previously, the abstract form is designed to engage the viewer. As the sculpture is viewed from different sides/angles, the state capital may be viewed though the rectangular cut-out within the piece.

Other Considerations:

The sculpture will be designed to withstand typical Nebraska wind and incorporate design considerations for general public safety. All welds will be sanded smooth with no sharp corners present.

Maintenance:

Maintenance will be minimal due to the material properties of the stainless steel material. If tagging or graffiti occurs, solvents may be employed for cleaning and restoration. Additionally, portable on-site glass bead blasting may be necessary.

Proposed Location:

Sculpture location will be on 22nd street between P and Q Streets. See the drawing below for location. This location provides one of the better views of the capital building with least amount of obstructions.

NON-STRUCTURAL BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICE RECOMMENDATIONS (DRAFT FORMAT)

EXISTING PROGRAMS

Sanitary Sewer Line Inspection Program

To prevent illicit discharges, identify defects, and support efforts towards meeting the 2007 TMDL goals, specifically for E. coli bacteria, the City of Lincoln (City) might consider establishing a targeted program to conduct internal inspections of sanitary sewer lines in the Antelope Creek Basin area utilizing a TV camera.

Dry Weather Storm Drainage Screening Program

City of Lincoln could more effectively monitor changing conditions in the watershed that are potentially contributing to pollutant loadings by establishing a dry weather screening protocol for the Antelope Creek Basin, and developing a work plan to annually monitor Antelope Creek and each major outfall or tributary that discharges to the creek.

Pet Waste Ordinances / Disposal Cans

To encourage residents to clean up their pet's waste, the City might consider installing and maintaining additional pet waste containers along parks and recreational areas in the Antelope Creek watershed. Encouragement can be enhanced by continued enforcement of existing ordinances requiring pet owners to collect pet waste within the Antelope Creek watershed, or notifying residents through bill stuffers about the potential enforcement actions available to the City for those not in compliance with local pet waste ordinances.

Targeted Rain Garden Program for Antelope Creek

Expansion of the existing city-wide program, with a focus on rain gardens in the Basin Plan area to help motivate the general public to install rain gardens. This could be a positive step towards limiting pollutants loads from stormwater runoff, including E. coli. One possibility would be to increase the cost share to 75-25. This program could work in coordination with the LPSNRD's existing Water Quality BMP Cost-Share program as a contributor of matching funds.

Targeted Rain Barrel Program for Antelope Creek Watershed

Implementing an expansion of the existing rain barrel program that would target Antelope Creek properties would reduce runoff and stormwater pollution and encourage reuse of rain water. The program expansion would involve installation of rain barrels in the Antelope Creek Watershed, and include cost-share up to 50-50.

Long Grass Maintenance Area Expansion

Establishment of native grass species using over seeding or re-seeding in long grass areas in the Antelope Creek watershed would have water quality benefits. In addition, expanded buffer zones to all applicable drainage ways, along Antelope Creek park areas, and throughout Jim Ager Golf Course are recommended.

Non-phosphorus Fertilizers Program

To prevent the application of excess phosphorus, expansion of the existing non-phosphorus fertilizing program could be supported through education and outreach to business owners responsible for lawn care. As part of this non-phosphorus fertilizer program, lawn care businesses would be encouraged to offer a non-phosphorus fertilizer option to clients in the Antelope Creek watershed.

Lincoln Children's Zoo

The City is encouraged to support the Zoo with the establishment of a water quality management plan that will outline goals and objectives for water quality management, define and expand existing controls in place to reduce the amount of E. coli reaching the creek, display zoo drainage patterns, provide a list of potential water quality projects, and identify potential funding sources for these projects. The water quality plan would help ensure that the current BMPs in place, and the excellent maintenance practices, at the Zoo continue.

Snow and Ice Management

Expansion of the existing locations to stockpile snow is not recommended for the Antelope Creek watershed. The City's snow removal management strategies might consider implementation of practices that would limit snowmelt into waterways without vegetative treatment or removal of solids and other debris. Practice guidelines established within the UDFCD Manual, Volume 3, would be a great resource for the City.

LPSNRD Cost-share Program

The LPSNRD has created a dedicated Water Quality BMP Cost-Share program to assist landowners with the implementation of BMPs aimed at improving the quality of surface waters within the District. Matching funds from the existing LPSNRD cost-share program would support other existing City water quality programs. Consideration of higher total maximum cost-shares is recommended for projects located in the Antelope Creek watershed.

NEW PROGRAMS

Wildlife Control

Bird droppings appear to be a significant source of E. coli in Antelope Creek. Several options are available for habitat modification to eliminate feeding, watering, roosting, and nesting sites for birds (UNL Cooperative Extension, 2004). Retrofitting older bridges and overpasses crossing Antelope Creek might be considered. Also eliminate roosting areas over impervious surfaces, especially those directly connected to the street drainage system or creek.

Actions to limit activities of other animals near Antelope Creek might be coordinated with UNL's co-sponsored website on wildlife management (http://icwdm.org/Default.asp), as well as UNL's Cooperative Extension Division and/or Wildlife Damage Control staff at the School of Natural Resources. A wildlife assessment study to determine the types of species present in the watershed would provide direction on other activities that would limit habitat of nuisance species that may be contributing to the pollutant load in Antelope Creek.

Rooftop Disconnection Incentive Program

Disconnections of rooftop runoff onto impervious surfaces is a relatively low-cost solution that if implemented over a large area could have a strong impact on reduction of pollutant loading to Antelope Creek. Consideration of an incentive for property owners in Antelope Creek to disconnect downspouts and roof drains from spilling onto impervious surfaces is recommended

Operation and Maintenance Plan for Sediment Removal

An Operation and Maintenance Plan to outline necessary actions to regularly remove sediment accumulation from Antelope Creek is recommended. Sediment removal from the stream has the potential to lower the overall bacteria loading in the stream, have a positive effect on water quality, and improve aesthetics. Mechanical and hydraulic options for sediment removal/flushing exist, including coordination with the US Army Corps of Engineers to determine if water would be available for releases from Holmes Lake as a mechanism to flush sediment out of the Antelope Creek water column.

Paired Watershed Study

A paired watershed study is recommended to monitor the effectiveness of non-structural and structural BMPs in a residential land use. This study would allow water quality to be monitored in a controlled area where no structural or non-structural BMPs would be implemented. Water quality would be monitored in an adjacent watershed of similar size, where several non-structural BMPs would be implemented.

TMDL Update

Consideration might be given to suggest to NDEQ that the 2007 TMDL for Antelope Creek be revised as new data becomes available after expansion of a monitoring program. The primary purpose of revising the TMDL would be to better delineate the City's responsibility under its waste load allocation (in relation to its MS4 permit) as compared to natural sources of bacteria that should not be included in the load allocation.

UNL's Antelope Creek Water Quality Partnership

The University of Nebraska – Lincoln's City Campus is located adjacent to Antelope Creek and encompasses the majority of the land at the lower end of the watershed. A partnership between the City and LPSNRD with UNL is recommended to encourage use of BMPs on UNL's City Campus and Innovation Campus.

Low Impact Development Strategies (LID)

As the City of Lincoln continues to grow and redevelop it will be important for the City to investigate the incorporation of LID strategies into the current building codes and practices. The primary goal of LID is to design new sites or retrofit existing sites to protect or restore the natural hydrology so that the overall integrity of the watershed is protected. This is accomplished by creating a hydrologically functional landscape. Elements that can be considered for incorporation into future development include:

Curb Cut bio-filters (new and existing residential areas); bioswales in lieu of closed conduit storm drainage systems; low density housing areas that allow for large green spaces to manage storm water permeable paving systems; planter boxes; rain gardens; and green roofs.

Microbial Source Tracking

Additional investigation into potential sources of E. coli in Antelope Creek through MST is not recommended. Although MST could provide additional information on the potential sources of E. coli bacteria in Antelope Creek, neither the EPA nor the NDEQ currently recognize differentiating between bacteria source organisms (human vs. wildlife for example) in applying Water Quality Standards. Therefore MST would likely not change the existing TMDL nor be considered in the evaluation of attainment of the beneficial use.

I am writing on behalf of my client, Kali Records, LLC. It occurred to me that the Council members may not have been supplied a copy of the supporting documents for the above-mentioned liquor license application, which is scheduled for hearing on Monday. COUNTY OF Lancaster)

1. I, Brandy L. Kroese, am the sole owner, director, and manager of Kali Records, LLC.

2. Kali Records, LLC, is applying for a retail liquor license from the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission. Kali Records, LLC, is applying as its Trade Name, Smooth. Said name is attached to the nightclub located at 1644 "O" Street, Lincoln, NE 68508.

3. Kali Records, LLC, previously applied for a liquor license on December 22, 2010. Upon hearing before the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, the City Council decided to recommend to the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission that the application should be denied for the following reasons (quoted from Lincoln City Council Resolution No. A-86216:

a. The applicant is unfit, unwilling, and/or unable to properly provide the service proposed within the City of Lincoln.

b. The applicant cannot conform to all provisions and requirements of and rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the Nebraska Liquor Control Act and/or pertinent City ordinances.

c. The applicant has not demonstrated that the type of management and control to be exercised over the premises described in the application will be sufficient to insure that the licensed business can conform to all provisions and requirements of and rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the Nebraska Liquor Control Act, and pertinent City ordinances.

d. The applicant has not demonstrated that the issuance of the license is or will be required by the present or future public convenience and necessity.

4. At the time of the previous application, Kali Records, LLC, was owned and managed by Shane Harrington. Since the denial of the application, Mr. Harrington sold the company to me.

5. Shane Harrington has no ownership interest in Kali Records, LLC, its trade name, Smooth, or Smooth bar. He is not a silent partner. He is not an employee. He has no management rights, responsibilities, or authority regarding the running of Kali Records, LLC, its trade name, Smooth, or Smooth bar.

6. In response to City Council's findings, I submit the following exhibits:

a. Exhibit A: Certificate of Completion Responsible Hospitality Council Management Training

b. Exhibit B: Certificate of Completion - SureSell Nebraska On-Premise Alcohol Server Training

c. Exhibit C: Certificate of Completion - Food Handler Training - Restricted/Shift Food Manager Permit

d. Exhibit D: Letter of Recommendation from Dr. Travis J. Bangert D.C.

e. Exhibit E: Letter of Recommendation from Susan DeLuca Smith

7. Regarding the Letter of Recommendation from Dr. Travis J. Bangert, D.C., he is a doctor of chiropractic medicine. He is the successful business owner of Advanced Chiropractic Solutions. I have been a patient of his and we have established a good friendship over the years.

8. Regarding the Letter of Recommendation from Susan DeLuca Smith, she is currently working with Eagle Race Way in Nebraska. She places all the orders for their vendors including all the alcohol orders. She sets up all the promotions and marketing for them as well. She has brought in concerts including the beach Boys last year. She has a law degree as well. She has worked with Fortune 1000 companies for the last 22 years. She is very knowledgeable in the business field and hospitality field. She has helped me with getting in contact with her representatives at all the distribution centers for ordering alcoholic and non-alcoholic products. She has helped me create a list of what is required to have in a bar and form her knowledge what products are selling the best so I know what I should and should not carry in Smooth.

9. I feel that the addition of these recommendations and certifications to this application show that Kali Records, LLC, and Smooth are fit for licensure as a liquor establishment. Furthermore, any negative sentiments held toward Mr. Harrington's reputation have been removed from the business.

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to serve as recommendation for one Miss Brandy Kroese.

I first met Miss Kroese when she presented to my clinic with some neck pain. Through our treatment sessions is when I began to really get to know Brandy, and get an understanding of who she is and what she is about.

Miss Kroese is a positive, inspiring, and motivated individual who has an amazing drive for success. She is a single mother of a very bright little girl who u can tell loves her mom very much. Brandy's dream is to run a successful and reputable business in Lincoln so that she can not only provide for her family, but also one day give back to the community that served her so well.

As a business owner myself I can see her potential as an employee and wish my current work force possessed her amazing qualities and uplifting talent. She is well aware she always has a job with me if she so desires.

Brandy Kroese has my full and complete recommendation.

Sincerely

Dr. Travis J. Bangert D.C.

Dear Brandy:

It is with great pleasure that I provide a recommendation for you to support your efforts in obtaining the proper liquor and catering licensing for your recent nightclub acquisition.

As you are aware, I am extremely supportive of the entire concept of Club Smooth. I firmly believe that it will provide a very positive and sophisticated influence on the downtown nightlife of Lincoln, which is something that is critically needed.

I am excited that you have decided to purchase this club and I feel that you will successfully navigate the ownership transition and implementation phase with ease due to your tenacious work ethic and attention to detail. I also look forward to the establishment and success of another woman-owned business in Lincoln.

After 22 years of Fortune 1000 sales experience in a service industry, combined with my event marketing and business planning consulting work here in Nebraska, I have come to understand very succinctly the recipe needed for service-related business success. Without question, I believe that the combination of the concept of Smooth, the facilities of Smooth, the growth plan of Smooth, and the management structure you are intending for Smooth will ensure tremendous stability and growth in downtown Lincoln.

All the best for your new endeavor! Please do not hesitate to contact me should you need any additional assistance.

Subject: repeal City Dividend

To City Council Lincoln Nebraska
Date 6 December 2011
From Richard M. Lorenzen 951 North 56th Street, Lincoln Phone (402) 464 8682 Subject : City Dividend

The City Dividend (now on Lincoln Electric System bills) is wrong for several reasons

We are told that the dividend will be charged to all, and it is, including schools. But public schools are funded largely by taxes, so the result is increased need for staff to pass on the dividend to real estate tax payers and added tax burden for individuals.

It is said that one of the benefits of publicly owned utility is not having an investor to whom to pay a dividend, yet exactly that is happening with this city dividend scheme.!

Even Lincoln Electric System is confused as to who owns the Lincoln Electric System – The document " Facts about your LES " published by LES, on the front page states,
" …… to oversee operations of the nonprofit, CUSTOMER-OWNED utility. "
(emphasis mine).

Yet in another LES publication titled " 2012 proposed budget and rate adjustment " the first line of the first paragraph states, " As a CITY-OWNED UTILITY, Lincoln Electric System serves as an advocate for our CUSTOMER-OWNERS by delivering …"
(emphasis mine.)

John Boyce of Lincoln-Lancaster county building and safety department told me that this department would determine a residence to be uninhabitable if it did not have electricity, the residents would be ordered to evaculate the residence soon. The lady at Salvation Army, in November 2011 told me that there was a 2-3 week back log of requests to file for Heat Share assistance – assistance in paying electric bills – WHICH NOW INCLUDE THE SO-CALLED CITY DIVIDEND and make additional burden for residences and individuals.

There is the issue of sales tax on the City Dividend – a tax on a tax. .

The City Dividend is a TAX so do not try to hide that fact by calling it something else.. It is an additional tax by Lincoln City Government which cannot buy enough buildings, and continues to expand government. While the Lincoln mayor and city council were desperate to enact this City Dividend, on 15 November 2011 – the water from the plant watering sprinklers in the land adjacent to 48th Street at Prescott across the street from Union College were running City Dividend water down the gutter – watering what, on 15 November? The city dividend is a money grab by a desperate City government to expand government and increase control of the lives of individuals. There is no sales tax on food, and there should be no sales tax or dividend tax on residential electricity.

REPEAL THIS CITY DIVIDEND IMMEDIATELY – CUT SPENDING

Re: 2011-12 Grant Schedule Revised

Community Health Endowment Announces Revised Grant Schedule

The Community Health Endowment of Lincoln (CHE) will make approximately $2 million available in FY2011-12 to improve community health through grants to eligible organizations. This funding will support the continuation of current projects, as well as new projects.

CHE is currently sponsoring a comprehensive study of Lincoln's safety net. This study is expected to be completed by February, 2012. Although CHE funding priorities would typically be announced in December 2011, the CHE Board of Trustees has revised the grant schedule so that the recommendations of the safety net study can be taken into consideration when setting the priorities.

Organizations interested in applying for CHE funding should expect funding priorities to be released in February 2012. Information regarding the funding priorities, application process, deadlines, and Applicant Workshops will be made available at www.chelincoln.org.

CHE was created in 1999 as a result of the sale of Lincoln General Hospital. As a grant-making organization, CHE supports non-profit agencies in achieving the vision of making Lincoln, Nebraska the healthiest community in the nation. During the past 12 years, CHE has returned nearly $15 million to the community.

Comment or Question:
I have a concern about LES fees; I am asking the council because the answer(s) to my questions were not available at the LES office.
My wife and I are the owners of 2 six-plex properties here in Lincoln. On our monthly LES bill we are charged $14 for customer/facility charge and $3.25 for city dividend. These charges are more than what is paid at regular residential buildings like a single family dwelling. One of my propeties uses under $10 in energy per month, but my total bill is around $29. The staff at LES was very polite and professional when I stopped in, but even after calling down someone from upstairs, they told me that they do not know why the charges would be different; it is the city that makes this detemination.
1. My property uses less energy than most residential properties.
2. There is no special equipment at my propety.
3. There is no extra labor to provide the energy for my property.
=I feel that I have worked very hard and saved to be able to invest in these properties =I feel that it is unjust to assess a charge to me just because of the size of the building.

What is it that justifies the extra customer and facility charges and the extra dividend charge? Why not base it on the amount of usage or equipment or labor used to provide the energy.

Please respond or provide me with the name of who can explain. Also, someone at LES should be able to answer these questions.

Comment or Question:
Dear City Council Members:

I am interested in the prospect of a sidewalk in our neighborhood. Specifically, a sidewalk along south 44th street from Van Dorn to Calvert street (either side of the street). Currently, there is nothing along this street. I've seen people, families, children, people in wheelchairs, and the blind walking down this street (and it is a rather busy street). It's even tougher in the winter with unplowed snow and ice on the street.

I have tried contacting the city sidewalk department, but have not had much success. I'm sure the funding of sidewalks has dried up like many other items in the city budget. Thank you for looking into this, and thank you for your time and service on the City Council. Happy Holidays!

Sincerely,

Todd Cuddy

Subject: HVAC Code Changes

December 9, 2011

From Robert Converse

Dear council members,

As you prepare to vote on HVAC ordinance changes next Monday, I would like to bring a couple of thoughts to your attention:

1. One of the items Merle Scott proposed is to require permits and inspection of refrigerant piping. While this proposal sounds innocuous, his stated reason to activate this code change is to bring in more revenue to support his building code enforcement department? The primary reason behind requiring permits and inspections is to ensure a correct installation which should prevent any unsafe condition. I.E., public safety.
   This code change as proposed will now require that permits be taken and refrigerant piping inspected in grocery stores, and cold storage plants. Whenever a grocer wants to move or add a cold case or freezer display case, he will have to submit plans, take out a permit, and request inspection at rough in and at finish? Merle will definitely need more inspectors.

   The unique thing about this industry is that there is too much liability involved for a contractor to take short cuts. The chance of food spoilage or something done wrong that might cause injury to employees or the public is just too great for a contractor to install piping incorrectly. In addition, this part of the refrigeration industry is a specialized division that requires different licensing and training than commercial building and home comfort refrigerant piping. It is doubtful the HVAC inspectors have enough knowledge to require any changes to piping. Nor would they want to, as any changes inspectors might require, could shift failure liability to the city.

   Further more, licensing of refrigerant piping workmen may be the next requirement HVAC codes has in mind? Would this be to try to limit or regulate any outside contractor that might want to work in Lincoln? As a local contractor, I might think this is a good idea?

   Merle stated the local contractors are ok with this code requirement, but then why not? The refrigerant piping contractor will just add the permit cost to the cost of the piping changes and pass them on to the grocery store owner. But do we think the added permit costs will come out of the pocket of the wholesaler or retailer? No, these added costs will be passed on to the consumer in the form of higher food prices.

   My point is that building codes exist to protect the public. Merle makes no attempt to cover this code change as a safety or energy regulation. Only that more revenue will come in to support his department. This is a very poor reason for expansion of inspections into an area that requires very specific knowledge, does nothing to protect the public in any way, and will certainly swamp the existing inspection workforce.

2. The Proposed ban of 80% efficient furnaces in the City of Lincoln:
   Many people in Lincoln have an insurance policy that covers their major appliances, which includes furnaces and condensing units. If a furnace needs replacement, coverage will only replace the furnace with the same efficiency furnace and most policy holders do not realize that. Replacing an 80% efficient furnace with 90% efficient furnace would be considered an upgrade, and these extra costs are not be covered by the policy.

   When changing from 80% efficient to a 90% efficient furnace, the salesman will always ask “why wouldn’t you replace that old 10 SEER condensing unit with a 14 or 15 SEER condensing unit with a matching evaporator coil and coil cabinet?” Then he asks if you are interested in an efficient programmable set-back thermostat. How about a new humidifier and control?

My point is, changing from an 80% efficient furnace to a 90% efficient furnace is a big step up in efficiency and even though costly, it would make very little sense not to increase the cooling efficiency while increasing the heating efficiency. This proposed code change if adopted will force a decision on that very issue.

Please do not pass the HVAC code changes as presented.

Sincerely,

RECEIVED
DEC 12 2011
CITY COUNCIL OFFICE

Council Member Eugene Carroll
555 South 10th Street
Lincoln, NE 68508

Dear Council Member Carroll,

I am writing to urge the Lincoln City Council to approve several important elements of the Lincoln Electric System's proposed budget for 2012. These have been lumped together as the 'sustainable energy package', but each one is important to Lincoln Electric System's customers, and we urge your support for all three.

The $6 million investment in a new landfill gas project at the Lincoln landfill will provide Lincoln Electric System (LES) with a unique opportunity to capture a resource that is now not just wasted, but is an environmental problem. The $2 million proposed for wind energy interconnections will allow LES to tap into a cost-effective and renewable source of electric power. Both of these projects will diversify the sources of power generation for LES, and reduce the utility's risk in the future from higher fuel and transportation costs, and new environmental rules that are also making power from coal and other fossil fuels more expensive.

We also urge your support for the $3 million proposed for the Sustainable Energy Program. As we shared with the LES Board, we believe the $3 million proposed for the Sustainable Energy Program should really be at least $5 million in 2012, with higher sums in the future. This program, like similar programs at other electric utilities, are proving to be very cost-effective ways to meet the energy demands of utility customers while keeping rates low for everyone.

As background, Lincoln Electric System and other Nebraska electric utilities face new rules from the Environmental Protection Agency that will reduce sulfur dioxide, nitrous oxides, particulates, ozone, mercury and other air pollution emissions, and regulate coal ash due to the hazardous constituents it contains. Those rules are designed to begin to internalize the high health and environmental costs that coal-fired powerplants now impose on neighbors downwind and downstream – including many Nebraskans.

Lincoln Electric System gets a sizeable portion of its power from the Gerald Gentleman and Sheldon stations owned and operated by Nebraska Public Power District. According to LES information, roughly 177 Megawatts (MW) of capacity from those powerplants comes to LES, representing 17% to 18% of LES generation resources.

As we have shared with the LES board, there are tremendous opportunities to make large-scale investments in energy efficiency among the LES commercial, industrial and residential customer base – investments that would allow LES to forego the power from one or both of these powerplants.

LES's own analysis of a broad range of sustainable alternatives this past summer identified a number of cost-effective alternatives. In some cases, like weatherizing homes, the net financial impact was positive for LES and its ratepayers. In other cases, the alternatives are cheaper than new coal-fired powerplant capacity. Given the huge cost of retrofitting old coal-burning powerplants like Gentleman and Sheldon, we believe many of the alternatives that LES identified would also be cheaper than retrofits.

For example, through its Sustainable Energy Program LES has invested about $5 million over 3 years in cost-effective customer-level energy efficiency measures. Those investments will avoid about 10 MW in future new generation that LES will not need to make. LES staff estimates that the $2 million invested through the Sustainable Energy Program in 2011 will avoid about $5 million in future generation cost.

Based on the Sustainable Energy Program results, the program is 'buying' capacity at around $530,000 per MW. That estimate tracks with estimates we have seen from other states, where energy efficiency programs have been offsetting capacity for $300,000 to $500,000 per MW.

Similarly, Nebraska Public Power District calculates that its EnergyWise program, which is similar in many ways to the LES Sustainable Energy Program, is reducing the need to have capacity in place for around $668,000 per MW (including NPPD labor costs), and saving electricity at around 1 cent per kilowatt hour (including NPPD labor) – much cheaper than it would cost to generate it. Thus these programs save money for participants as well as for other customers.

Alternatively, the early estimates from Nebraska Public Power District are that an upgrade to the Gerald Gentleman units, which have around 1,365 MW of capacity, will require around $1.5 billion, or about $1.1 million per MW, to keep the powerplant running and meet new requirements. That is more than twice what LES is paying per MW for capacity through its Sustainable Energy Program. And, it doesn't even include the cost of coal to generate the electricity, costs that will also be avoided by energy efficiency measures.

Ultimately, LES ratepayers will pay a big share of the price of NPPD's decision. If NPPD invests $1.5 billion in Gerald Gentleman, the share LES customers will pay, based on receiving 8% of the output of the units, will be $130 million or more. Additional investments in powerplants like the Sheldon station will require even more from LES customers.

If, instead, LES were to avoid the need for some or all of that power, through programs like a greatly expanded Sustainable Energy Program, all LES customers would benefit from the savings in the cost of generation. In addition, the investments in weatherizing homes and businesses, upgrading outdated lighting systems, and making local businesses and industries more energy efficient would provide a surge in local construction and energy services jobs. Investments that make state and local public buildings more energy efficient would also translate into property tax savings.

For all of these reasons, but mostly to ensure that LES rates remain low for years into the future, we urge you to approve the proposed LES budget for the Sustainable Energy Program, the landfill gas project, and the wind energy interconnection. We also urge you to support substantial increases for energy efficient measures like the Sustainable Energy Program in the future as a way of meeting Lincoln's energy needs in a cost-effective manner.

Yours in Conservation,

Duane Hovorka
