New Emergency Alarm Registration

The following section outlines the process for an emergency alarm system owner to register their emergency alarm system or an alarm business to register as an alarm business. Alarm businesses registering systems on behalf of customers must first log in to their account and follow the instructions in the “Entering New Customers” section for registering emergency alarm systems on behalf of customers.

To register for a new emergency alarm permit, click the “New Account” link:

Next, click the button for the appropriate type of permit to begin the registration process:

The information collected for alarm user and alarm business registrations is similar. Alarm user pages will be shown in this guide and differences between the two processes will be noted. After clicking on the button for the appropriate type, the page to enter client details will next be displayed:
On this page, enter the details of the person responsible for the alarm (alarm business registration will include an EIN field). The details entered in the responsible party section will be used for sending correspondence related to all permits tied to the account. Although the permit details may be the same, this is the information about the client account. This allows multiple permits to be tied to a single account. At a minimum, enter the fields marked by a red asterisk. When finished, click the “Insert” button at the bottom of the page.

Near the top is a selection for the type of permit. Select the appropriate type of permit, Commercial or Residential (alarm business permits will be pre-selected to “Business”). Next, enter the details of the alarm or permit location. For alarm users, this will be the location of the emergency alarm. For alarm businesses, this will be the location of the business that holds the permit. If the name and address information are the same as the Responsible Party information, click the “Copy Responsible Party” button to copy the details from the Responsible Party section.

For alarm users, below the location details is an area to select the company that monitors the emergency alarm. Clicking the magnifying glass next to the field displays a form that allows searching and selection of alarm companies:
