Bill Chrastil: A Tribute to the Greats

Thursday, April 13

Bill Chrastil has been an award-winning, full-time entertainer since 1983. He's a singer, songwriter, producer and an accomplished instrumentalist. Many of his fans know him for his Elvis Tribute Shows but on this night Bill will pay homage to all the music greats of the 50s, 60s and 70s including, not only Elvis, but Conway Twitty, Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Roy Orbison, Tom Jones and Buddy Holly! You won't want to miss this great show!

Menu: Fried chicken, mashed potatoes w/gravy, brownie.

The Lightning Bugs:

Light Up the Night

Thursday, May 11

This terrifically talented trio specializes in "Moonbeam Swing," with smooth vocal harmonies in the Mills Brothers tradition and in an era when big bands were blowing. Their repertoire features jazz and pop standards from the '30s and '40s. It's a great tribute to the music of the greatest generation. The band has released a number of outstanding recordings including "The Lightning Bugs," "Bugology," "Stretchin' Out" and "Glow."

Menu: Meatloaf, Au gratin potatoes, apple crisp.

The L.U.G. Nuts (Lincoln Ukulele Group)

Thursday, June 8

“The L.U.G. Nuts” play an eclectic mix of ukulele music ranging from traditional Hawaiian, Rock ‘N Roll, Country & Western and even Punk Rock, with stops at every decade in between. Sit back and enjoy the fun as a stage full of ukuleles in various sizes and colors entertain you with catchy tunes and a healthy dose of humor! “Ukulele” is the Hawaiian word for “jumping fleas” which represents the sounds it supposedly makes. We assure you, fleas never sounded like what you will hear on this night!

Menu: BBQ pork, coleslaw, brownie.

Jimmy Mack: My Personal Favorites

Thursday, July 13

Mr. Jim McManaman, best known to his fans as “Jimmy Mack,” has been delighting audiences locally and regionally with his beautiful vocal renditions of timeless musical favorites, for over 50 years.

He’s always at ease with his audience and has a way of making them feel right at home. Jimmy brings a great collection of tunes from his vast repertoire that he considers his “personal favorites!” If you’ve never heard him before, come see what all the excitement is about!

Menu: Fried chicken, potato salad, cheesecake.

Tim Javorsky: All That Jazz

Thursday, Aug. 10

Tim has always had a passion for Jazz and entertaining people. To fulfill this passion, while in college studying classical saxophone and voice, he started a deejay service, entertaining people at school functions, weddings, and the like. After leaving school for the “real world,” Tim still continued his entertaining ways. Tim loves celebrating his many jazz influences such as Louie Armstrong, Stan Getz, Paul Desmond, David Sanborn, Gerry Mulligan, Stanley Turrentine, and Grover Washington, Jr. See why he’s in such demand, performing several hundred times a year.

Menu: Herb roasted chicken, oven roasted red potatoes, Apple crisp.

Joe Taylor: Still Singing the Memories

Thursday, Sept. 14

“Mr. Memories” is back! In April of 1994 Joe Taylor decided to go from a store owner to a full time entertainer. With well over 5,000 shows in 23 years and seven CD’s to his credit, he is still going strong. Not bad for a guy in his 80s! His greatest joy is bringing back “memories” through song, something that always brings smiles and laughter to those who need it most. He’s been a special friend to Aging Partners over the years and his rich singing voice and entertaining style are always a hit.

Menu: Chicken fried steak w/country gravy and mashed potatoes, mixed veggies, cheesecake.
