Would you like to be involved with the 2010 Special Olympics USA National Games? Deb Stroh, Director of Volunteer Services, attended the January Leadership Link meeting to discuss the numerous volunteer opportunities available from July 18-23. This is a BIG DEAL for Lincoln and Lancaster County as over 3,000 athletes, 1,000 coaches and 15,000 family/friends (including some well-known celebrities) will be in attendance!! Special Olympics needs more than 8,000 volunteers to assist with such things as security, event logistics, welcoming, delegation services, awards, receptions, ceremonies, information services, technology, etc. Many Leadership Link members have already signed up to help. If you would like to add your name to the volunteer list, please visit <http://www.2010specialolympics.org/page13243.asp>.

NMA Code of Ethics

- I will recognize that all individuals inherently desire to practice their occupations to the best of their ability. I will assume that all individuals want to do their best.
- I will maintain a broad and balanced outlook and will recognize value in the ideas and opinions of others.
- I will be guided in all my activities by truth, accuracy, fair dealing and good taste.
- I will keep informed on the latest developments in techniques, equipment, and processes. I will recommend or initiate methods to increase productivity and efficiency.
- I will support efforts to strengthen the management professional through training and education.
- I will help my associates reach personal and professional fulfillment.
- I will earn and carefully guard my reputation for good moral character and good citizenship.
- I will promote the principles of our American Enterprise System to others, by highlighting its accomplishments and displaying confidence in its future.
- I will recognize that leadership is a call to service.

NMA Statement of Principles

NMA is dedicated to managerial excellence, personal and professional growth, and leadership development. The following principles identify NMA's core beliefs and provide the basis for the Association's Mission Statement.

- We believe in the highest standards of personal and organizational integrity and respect for the individual.
- We believe in lifelong learning, continuous improvement, and the development of a workforce capable of sustaining a competitive posture in the global economy.
- We believe management is a creative, dynamic, and essential process enabling people to achieve personal and organizational objectives.
- We believe that managerial responsibility is shared among all individuals at all levels of the organization and that leadership is critical to management success.
- We believe that individuals and organizations have a community and civic responsibility.
