Topic: "Wow, That Felt Great!" based on the fish philosophy presented in the film "Fish, Catch the Energy, Release the Potential." The film is about Seattle's world-famous Pike Place Fish Market. Most people want to build stronger relationships that equip us to face challenges more effectively and to make a difference in the lives of people around us. The FISH! Philosophy is based on four components: (1) have fun, (2) make their day, (3) be there, and (4) choose your attitude. Learn practical tools to help you apply this philosophy at work, home and community.

Sandra Stockall is a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Colorado State University. She received the Distinguished Educational Service Award from the University of Nebraska for her work in leadership development. Recently, the Nebraska Department of Agriculture and the Nebraska Agricultural Youth Council presented her with the Award of Merit for her contributions to youth in Nebraska. Stockall has also received the Excellence in Team Programming Award from the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension for her work in leadership development.
