Topic: Dave Mlnarik will be sharing highlights of the upcoming State Games of America and the leadership principles he tries to uphold as Executive Director of the Nebraska Sports Council.

Dave Mlnarik has been the Executive Director of the Nebraska Sports Council since 2004. The council conducts the Cornhusker State Games, the LiveWell Challenge Series and annual stand-alone events including the Mud Run, Pumpkin Run and the Big Red Challenge. Total annual participation averages around 30,000.

He received his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1991 and has worked for the Nebraska Sports Council ever since. He is a former member of the National Congress of State Games Board of Directors. The Nebraska Sports Council was chosen to host the 2015 State Games of America this summer.

Dave and his wife Chrystal have four children. Hobbies include hunting, fishing, traveling and singing/playing music. He is also a member of the Downtown Optimist Club of Lincoln and coaches youth baseball and basketball.
