DISCUSSION / FINDINGS OF FACT:

The Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department (LLCHD) and College of Dentistry have had a long collaborative history with the Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department Dental Clinic serving as a rotation site for dental and dental hygiene students, with dental professional staff serving as mentors and providing field and clinical experiences in public health dentistry and practices. It is through these cooperative and collaborative efforts that the College of Dentistry dental and dental hygiene students achieve a greater awareness and appreciation for public health services and heighten awareness of the unmet needs in our community.
