

Why it pays to advertise in the Living Well magazine

1. Living Well magazine reaches over 51,000 readers quarterly. Over 15,000 receive it through U.S. Mail; the remainder receive it electronically. It is also available at many local medical practices.
2. Advertising in Living Well is a very cost-effective way to reach the 60 and over demographic. This group is projected to experience tremendous growth over the next twenty years as the Boomer generation retires.
3. Living Well reaches over 60 percent of people age 60 and over in the Aging Partners eight-county area. It is a respected resource for objective information on the many challenges and opportunities of aging.
4. Aging Partners directly serves seniors and their caregivers in Butler, Fillmore, Lancaster, Polk, Saline, Saunders, Seward and York counties in Nebraska. Living Well is available at all the senior centers in the area.
5. Aging Partners has been a trusted resource since 1971. We know the needs of older adults and are connected to many human service organizations. We are the source for unbiased information on aging.
6. Living Well can be accessed world-wide from the Aging Partners homepage (aging.lincoln.ne.gov). Just click on the Living Well graphic where you will find current and past issues.
7. In the on-line version of Living Well, all ads are hyperlinked to the advertiser's website, (as long as the ad contains a web address).
8. Aging Partners is part of the national Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) network. In Nebraska, Aging Partners is one of eight. Living Well is available to all AAAs in Nebraska.

The Living Well page averages 12,000 unique viewers each month and is growing.
