

Icon: Bison

Lincoln Parks Foundation

Lincoln

Established in 1992 with a mission to inspire and nurture a philanthropic legacy for parks and recreation in Lincoln. The Foundation honors all volunteers and donors who supported the campaign to revitalize Nebraska's Centennial Mall.

---

Icon: Bison

George Robbins Day

Lincoln

Born in Lincoln in 1917, this entrepreneur treasured Nebraska's expansive landscapes, its flowing waters, its magnificent sunsets and its children, whom he supported with his gifts and service. George inspired others with his wit and wide-ranging knowledge.

---

Icon: Bison

Bill Whitmer Family Trees Forever Endowment

Lincoln

This endowment provides for hundreds of trees along Centennial Mall and their replacement in perpetuity, a tribute to Bill Whitmer and his family's connection to our beautiful State Capitol and to the work his ABC Electric performed there.

---

Icon: Bison

Cooper Foundation

Lincoln

Joseph H. Cooper, born in 1885 in Lithuania and the founder of Cooper Theatres, created the Cooper Foundation in 1934. One of the oldest foundations in America, it supports strong, sustainable organizations, innovative ideas and ventures of significant promise.

---

Icon: Corn

Cornhusker Bank

Davey and Lincoln

Founded in Davey in 1903, Cornhusker Bank moved to Lincoln in 1960. Owned by the Dittman family, it is Lincoln's oldest locally owned community bank, dedicated to responsible stewardship of customers' financial resources and committed to their success.

---

Icon: Scales

Hudson J. and Ora Winnett

Lincoln

Dr. H.J. Winnett served as Lincoln's 17th mayor from 1899 to 1903. The Winnetts established a significant trust to benefit the city in perpetuity by supporting artwork, fountains and monuments now found in parks throughout Lincoln.

Honored by the City of Lincoln

---

Icon: Thunderbird

Lincoln Community Foundation

Lincoln

Founded in 1955 by a group of visionaries with a genuine love for Lincoln and a strong commitment to its constant improvement. This legacy endures through stewardship of charitable gifts to enrich the community residents now and in the future.

---

Icon: Thunderbird

Roger Larson

Lincoln

Born in Wausa in 1925 to second-generation Swedish immigrants, he graduated from the University of Nebraska. A broadcast executive, devoted family man and community leader, he believed in improving Lincoln and making life better for future generations.

Honored by the Lincoln Parks Foundation

---

Icon: Scales

The Joe R. Seacrest Family

Lincoln and North Platte

The Seacrest family owned the Lincoln Journal newspaper from 1887 to 1995. Joe R. began his 40-year newspaper career in 1946. Beatrice "Mike" began a career as a TV talk show hostess in 1972. Together they raised five children and supported their community.

---

Icon: Thunderbird

TierOne Bank Foundation

Lincoln

Established in 2002 to fund community projects in Lincoln and across the state, the TierOne Bank Foundation had a significant positive impact as it proudly supported hundreds of dedicated employees in their commitment to community.

---

Icon: Corn

R.S. and Carrie Dickinson

Columbus and Omaha

Parents of Jean, Hugh, Ann, Sheila, and Rae. In 1936, R.S. was named president of Nebraska Consolidated Mills, now ConAgra Foods. This Nebraska family is known for business achievement, education, art and philanthropy.

---

Icon: Scales

The Joe R. Seacrest Family

Lincoln and North Platte

The Seacrest family owned the Lincoln Journal newspaper from 1887 to 1995. Joe R. began his 40-year newspaper career in 1946. Beatrice "Mike" began a career as a TV talk show hostess in 1972. Together they raised five children and supported their community.

---

Icon: Thunderbird

TierOne Bank Foundation

Lincoln

Established in 2002 to fund community projects in Lincoln and across the state, the TierOne Bank Foundation had a significant positive impact as it proudly supported hundreds of dedicated employees in their commitment to community.

---

Icon: Corn

R.S. and Carrie Dickinson

Columbus and Omaha

Parents of Jean, Hugh, Ann, Sheila, and Rae. In 1936, R.S. was named president of Nebraska Consolidated Mills, now ConAgra Foods. This Nebraska family is known for business achievement, education, art and philanthropy.

---