

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF THE COMPLAINT IS SUSTAINED?

If a complaint is sustained against an employee, disciplinary action is taken. Disciplinary action can range from counseling by a supervisor to termination of employment. City, state, and federal personnel laws govern an employee's privacy rights. Disciplinary records may not be subject to public disclosure without a court order. You will be informed of the investigation's findings and whether disciplinary action will be taken.

HOW TO COMMEND A POLICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEE

When you receive services from our department that you feel are worthy of a commendation, we would like to hear about it. Although our employees do not expect to be thanked for everything they do, recognition of exceptional services is always appreciated. You can either write a brief letter describing the incident and the actions you feel were exceptional, or you can call 402-441-6000 and ask to speak to a supervisor. You may also call the Professional Standards Office at 402-441-7222. This feedback helps us know if we are doing a good job.
