I. POLICY

The Lincoln Police Department maintains an Early Warning Tracking System to provide supervisors with information about employees who may be experiencing a pattern of performance problems.

II. PROCEDURE

- A. The Early Warning Tracking System (EWTS) will collect data on critical incidents over a period of time in order to identify those employees who may benefit from appropriate intervention.
- B. The EWTS sets a threshold for several types of work-related incidents. When this threshold is met, a supervisor will meet with the employee, confer, and if warranted provide or arrange assistance to correct any performance problems. Resources available may include: (35.1.9)
 - 1. Referral to Employee Assistance Program
 - 2. Provision of additional training
 - 3. Supervisory monitoring of job performance.
- C. Early Warning Tracking System Incidents (35.1.9)
 - 1. Three categories of incidents will be used in the EWTS.
 - a. Category I: Crashes and Injuries
 - (1) Crashes ruled preventable by the Safety Committee.
 - (2) Injuries ruled preventable by the Safety Committee.
 - b. Category II: Community Complaints
 - (1) Employee Incident Report complaints sustained against the employee.
 - (2) Professional Standards Unit complaints sustained against the employee.
 - c. Category III: Use of Control Techniques
 - (1) Hard empty hand techniques
 - (2) Use of intermediate weapons
 - (3) Discharge of firearms
 - (4) Lethal control
 - 2. EWTS reviews will take place whenever an employee accumulates: (35.1.9)
 - a. Three incidents identified within six months in any single category, or;
 - b. Six incidents within six months in any combination of categories.
 - 3. The Professional Standards Unit will be responsible for the collection of data used for tracking and the reporting of data to the chief of police.
- D. EWTS Reviews (35.1.9)
 - 1. The Professional Standards Unit maintains monthly statistics identifying all employees who currently meet the review criteria, and the number and type of incidents for each.
 - 2. If an employee meets the criteria for the EWTS, the Professional Standards Unit shall complete and send an EWTS form to the employee's unit manager. This form shall include a listing of the incidents leading to the review.

3. The employee's unit manager and supervisor are responsible for meeting with the employee and reviewing all relevant documentation. They shall determine what, if any, intervention is called for, and shall initiate this action.
 4. The employee shall initial the EWTS form and may include written comments.
 5. The unit manager shall complete the EWTS form within 10 days and return this to the Professional Standards Unit for review.
 6. Professional Standards will forward the completed EWTS form to the chief of police or designee for final approval. (35.1.9)
 7. Completed EWTS forms will be retained in the employees personnel file and may be removed following the same guidelines as Employee Incident Reports.
 8. The chief of police maintains final authority regarding any deviation in rare and unique circumstances in which formal unit review may not be required.
- E. The Professional Standards Unit will prepare an annual report of the number of employees identified by the EWTS and an overall evaluation of the system. (35.1.9)
